

to Iowa about three weeks ago to visit a daughter, and who was taken suddenly ill himself and died, was a cousin of Dr. J. M. Elliott, of Normal.

—Mr. J. B. Adam was called to Chicago again yesterday to take charge of the remains of the late Mrs. N. N. Jones, who died in that city at 6:30 o'clock yesterday morning. Mr. Adams was called to Chicago one day last week, when Mrs. Jones was thought to be dying, but she rallied, and he returned to Normal on Saturday.

—Sunday morning at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Griswold, in Washburn, Ill., occurred the marriage of Miss Cora Griswold to Mr. Stauter Stauter, whose home is in the same town, but who has been a student at the Normal university this year. The groom left Normal Saturday without telling his friends of his matrimonial intentions, and they were surprised when he returned yesterday morning with his bride. The couple will be at home on North street while the groom continues his studies at the university.
