

— Mr. William Morrow returned from West Virginia this week, where he went some six or eight days ago to visit his aged mother, who had the misfortune to fall and break her hip. He reports her doing as well as could be expected.

— The remains of Mrs. Noah N. Jones, who died in Chicago, was brought here Wednesday afternoon and was laid to rest in the Hudson cemetery, beside that of her husband, son and daughter. Mrs. Jones came to Hudson township with her husband in the early '40s and resided on the farm now occupied by Mr. Scott Trimmer for twenty-five or thirty years.

— The funeral of Mrs. Samuel Porter will be held from the Baptist church on

